Response & Resilience

Every year our firefighters attend more than 90,000 incidents across the length and breadth of Scotland. However, there's more to our emergency response than you might think:

- Firefighting
- Road Traffic Collisions
- Specialist Rescue
- Resilience

Prevention & Protection

The Scottish Fire and Rescue Service works to protect every community not only by responding to incidents, but also by preventing them from happening in the first place by:

- Ensuring every home is fire safe
 - Home fire safety visits
 - Post Domestic Incident Response (PDIR)
- Spreading the fire safety message
- Engaging with schools, community groups and businesses'
 - Fire safety audits

Post Domestic Incident Response (PDIR)

Aims

- Reduce Fire Fatalities & Casualties
- Reduce Accidental Dwelling Fires
- Enhance Community Safety

This is achieved by

- Examining the cause, identifying remedial actions to prevent reoccurrence and prevent future risk
- Engaging with Householders, Neighbours and the wider Community by offering Home Fire Safety Visits
