

Item 9 - Question Time

Response to Mr M Reiss

There was no external cost to the Council for the preparation of the report, as the contract costs were wholly funded by Scottish Government. The only cost to Highland Council was staff time in procurement, liaising with LUC and presenting and analysing the findings.