4.0 Legislation

- 4.1 The Licensing Board must, in considering and determining the application, consider whether any grounds of refusal apply and, if none of them applies, the Board must grant the application.

Relevant grounds of refusal are: -

1. that the premises are excluded premises;
 2. that the grant of the application would be inconsistent with one or more of the licensing objectives;
 3. that having regard to;
 - (i) the nature of the activities proposed to be carried on in the subject premises,
 - (ii) the location character and condition of the premises, and
 - (iii) the persons likely to frequent the premises,the Board considers the premises are unsuitable for use for the sale of alcohol, or
 4. that having regard to the number and capacity of licensed premises of the same or similar description in the locality, the Board considers that if the application were to be granted, there would, as a result, be overprovision of licensed premises of that description in the locality.
- 4.2 If the Board would refuse the application as made, but a modification is proposed by them and accepted by the applicant, the application can be granted as so modified.

5.0 Licensing Standards Officer

- 5.1 The LSO has provided the following comments:-
- 5.2 The applicant operates a 4 letting bedroom guest house for up to 8 guests and makes application for a premises licence for the sale of alcohol only to residents. The premises will fall within category 1 in terms of Regulation 4(d) Licensing (Fees) (Scotland) Regulations 2007. (Main function is to provide accommodation, not open to the public other than for accommodation and alcohol may only be sold for consumption on the premises only by guests being accommodated there.)

5.3 The premises are set in their own grounds with no immediate neighbours.

5.4 The sale of alcohol shall be to residents only.

5.5 All activities and services referred to in the operating plan are appropriate for this type of operation. Persons under the age of 18 are not permitted on the premises.

5.6 It is noted that an outdoor drinking area is proposed. It is not considered necessary to impose any restriction or other conditions on its use.
