

Item 8ii - Question Time

To the Chair of the People Committee

“How many people aged (a) 16-17 and (b) 18-21 have been placed into temporary accommodation in a B&B or HMO during each of the last five years?”

Response to Mr Laird

The number of young people placed in temporary accommodation has been decreasing in recent years.

In the age range 16-17 years, the number placed in temporary accommodation was 100 in 2012-2013 and this had reduced to 53 for 2016-17.

In the age range 18-21 years, the number placed was 211 in 2012-13. This number has fallen year-on-year to 108 for 2016-17.
