5. Community Justice Update:

Margaret provided an update including the further funding from the Small Change for Justice Event. It was mentioned that points of contact still need to be found for some of the projects. Margaret volunteered to be a point of contact for Dingwall Men's Shed, Alistair volunteered for New Start, and Libby volunteered for Youth Highland. Points of contact need to be found for Signpost and Highlife Highland.

Action – partnership to let Margaret know if they can be a point of contact

Action – Reports on how the projects are progressing to be brought to the September CJP Meeting – James Maybee, Philip, Roddy, Derek, Stephen, Joanna, Margaret, Alistair, Libby

The Launch Event will take place on Thursday 26 April 2018 at Police HQ, Inverness from 1030hrs – 1330hrs

Action - Everyone to let Margaret know if they will attend the Launch Event

6. Review of CJ Plan:

This had already been covered in Item 4 on the Agenda.

7. Review of CJ Plan 2017-18:

The Community Justice Plan for 2018-21 was presented at the meeting to those present for approval and comment. In particular, Margaret requested that the outcome indicators included within the plan could be achieved. It was also acknowledged that the plan is a 'working document' which will have actions etc. added to it as time moves forward and work progresses.

Alistair informed the meeting that he thought the Small Change event should be repeated and that the partnership should look at this.

Action – Judy to look at the outcome indicators for Outcome 2 of the plan.

Action – James Maybee indicated that he would follow up with Housing their thoughts around the Housing First model

Action - Libby Bligh offered to bring a Business Plan for employment to the partnership table

8. Finances & Budgeting:

Mhairi spoke to a paper outlining the finances available from 2018 – 2020 and the proposed use of the funds for various events which are outlined within the CJ Plan.

AGREED that the proposals outlined are a suitable use of the funds

Stephen indicated that he may be able to provide some funding for training resources.

Action - James will check with accountant

9. Community Justice Learning Exchange:

Mhairi presented a paper in relation to a learning exchange that the partnership could undertake in relation to employment and employability. It was proposed to visit 3 social enterprises (1 in Northern Ireland and 2 in London) that deal with employing those who have been imprisoned on their release. This is likely to take place in June 2018.

AGREED that the learning exchange should go ahead

Action – those involved to reply to Mhairi/Margaret by 16 March with their commitment

10. Community Justice Award:

Mhairi presented a paper in relation to the Community Justice Partnership Award, which outlined the criteria and the timeline that will be incorporated into the HTSI Awards in August 2018.

11. Funding request for Help HUB HMP & YOI Grampian:

Margaret introduced the request that had been received from the CPP in Grampian requesting funding for the Help HUB. Concerns around this were raised from most of the partnership particularly around the small number of people from Highland who are actually accessing this facility.

AGREED that the Partnership do not think it appropriate to provide any funding

Action – CJP to respond

12. Good News Stories:

Margaret updated the meeting that the main good news story for this meeting was the further funding that had been received for the unsuccessful bids at the Small Change for Justice Event, which had now enabled the Partnership to fund all 15 projects that made bids on the day.

Margaret requested that if anyone was willing to make a comment on behalf of the Partnership for a press release in relation to this, then to contact her.

13. AOCB:

Libby asked for volunteers to help at Belladrum, to dress as fairies, suggestions as to likely candidates – Philip MacRae, Police Scotland and Fraser Nixon, SFRS.

Judy updated the meeting that HTSI had won the Policing Partner of the Year at the Scottish Policing Excellence Awards 2017 at a ceremony at the Scottish Police College in January and that the work commitment to community justice had been a factor in the nomination.

Margaret updated that she had recently received information that the Partnership would be expected to provide an annual report in relation to community justice for September 2018.

After discussion, it was agreed that a sub group should be set up to progress this.

Action – Margaret to set up sub group for those interested

Margaret also raised membership of the partnership, in particular around attendance of those who should attend and whether there are others we should invite, e.g. Reporter to Children's Panel, Highlife Highland – adult education, Sheriffs.

It was noted that Housing have not been present at the CJP Meeting for a year

Action – James Maybee offered to speak to the council and David Goldie in relation to this Action – Margaret to e-mail the partnership with details of attendance over the past year

Action – Stephen to make an approach to the Sheriff regarding attendance at the CJP

14. Date of next meetings:

Wednesday 20 June

Wednesday 12 September

Wednesday 12 December
