Road Traffic Operations/Campaigns	The Festive Drink/Drug Drive Campaign 2018 ran between 1 December and 2 January 2019. Police Scotland N Division is committed to achieving the Scottish Government's 2020 casualty reduction targets. Increasing awareness of the risks associated with drink/drug driving supports the Force's efforts to reduce road casualties. The campaign was conducted through a combination of intelligence-led high visibility patrols and static road checks. This resulted in two Drink Drivers for Lochaber and Skye Over 3000 vehicles stopped by police in N Division during the campaign. Numbers across the Division were slightly down, however there is a trend emerging amongst males in their twenties featuring at a higher percentage than expected.

Operation Cedar - Operation CEDAR (Challenge, Educate, Detect and Reduce) builds on established practices and will focus on various agencies working in partnership to reduce the number of people killed and seriously injured in the Highlands. Operation CEDAR involves proactive multi-agency enforcement operations on the roads, which will sit alongside education activity aimed at improving the behaviour of drivers of all ages behind the wheel.

Partner agencies will also work together to gain a greater understanding of the factors which could be used to improve the safety of everyone on the roads and together respond to these issues.

PRIORITY – Violence, Disorder and Anti-social Behaviour including Alcohol and Drugs Misuse

Intention – With partners, better understand the causes to prevent and reduce instances of Anti-social Behaviour, Violence and Disorder to enhance community safety across the Highland Area

What is Third Party Reporting?

Recommendation 16 of the Stephen Lawrence Inquiry Report stated:

“That all possible steps should be taken by Police Services at local level in consultation with local Government and other agencies and local communities to encourage the reporting of racist incidents and crimes. This should include:

- The ability to report at locations other than police stations; and
- The ability to report 24 hours a day”

Giving members of the public this safe, confidential and supportive environment to report incidents in order to encourage a greater number of reports.

Several organisations were approached by Police/nominated themselves as a Third Party reporting centre see list. However we are always keen to recruit and train more third party reporting centres so if you are interested, please let us know and contact HighlandIslandDCU@scotland.pnn.police.uk for more information.

Role of Third Party Reporting Centre

What’s expected of a third party reporting centre?

Provide a positive, confidential and supportive environment for the individual who reports.

Provide a link between the victim and the police after the report is made

Work with victim to access appropriate supports to deal with aftermath.

What a Third Party Reporting site should expect from Police Scotland?

Acknowledgement from police when a Third Party Report is submitted.

A named contact within the local Police Division who can offer advice and liaison

Updates from police on progress on a third party report

Regular opportunities to network with other third party reporting sites

What is staff role in third party reporting centres?

Be familiar with mechanism for reporting

Don't assume that victims don't want to report

Explore options available for reporting incidents to the police with the person disclosing, including submitting through a third party and reporting anonymously.

Be aware that even if victim doesn't want to report one incident, they may well want to report in the future.

Record hate incidents, with the victim's permission, pass reported information to police.
