6.0 Licensing Standards Officer

6.1 The LSO has provided the following comments:-

(i) James Pringle Weavers is a retail shop in the centre of Inverness which sells alcohol by way of off sales. The main trade is with tourists in respect of Scottish themed clothing and gifts. The premises have a trouble free operating history and compliance visits by the LSO have revealed the premises being run correctly according to the terms of their alcohol premises licence.

(ii) The premises have sought to modernise their existing licence in order to meet the heavy demands of the tourist trade with more flexibility.

(iii) The terminal hour Monday to Sunday is requested to be amended to 2200 hours. This is in line with the off sales hours allowed for in the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005.

(iv) The capacity for seasonal variations is no longer required. Section 5 has been updated within the operating plan to accurately reflect the activities and the times they are offered by the premises.

(v) The LSO has reviewed the amended operating plan and is of the opinion that it is compliant with the licensing objectives.

(vi) Following the public consultation phase of this application no objections or observations have been received.
